The mission study class of the Church of the Good Shepherd will meet at the home of Mrs. S. N. Parker of 25 Spaulding street, Thursday evening at 7:30.
Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Holmes, former residents of Barre, who have been residing in Montpelier for the past year, have gone to Highgate Springs, where they have purchased a house.

The members of the Glenugic club will meet at Clan Gordon hall Thursday aft-ernoon at 1:30 o'clock for the purpose of attending the funeral of our late brother, Alexander Young. Please wear badges and white gloves. Per order

Remember the talk on equal suffrage by Mrs. Estee at the Universalist church vestry this evening at 7:30 o'clock. The lecture is free and it is hoped many will take the opportunity to hear Mrs. Estee, whether in favor of the subject or not.

About 25 young friends of William Hutchins gathered at his home at 33

Branch street Monday evening in honor of his 13th birthday anniversary. Games were played and a lunch was served, consisting of cake and lemonade. The young people left a number of gifts. Mrs. E. A. Williams and nephew of Toronto, Ont., are visiting at the home of Mrs. Charles Williams of South Main street. Mrs. Williams plans to remain in Barre for some time, as her husband,

Captain Williams, is with the Royal Dragoons in England. Mrs. Clyde Howell and children, who have been visiting at the home of the former's father, Theodore Beach, of 107 Prospect street, left yesterday for Rutland, instead of Montreal, as was previously reported. Mr. Howell, who was engaged for some time as a telegraph operator in the office of the Montreal

Star, has been transferred to Rutland by the Western Union Telegraph Co. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Gates of Franklin street, Mrs. Glenn C. Carpenter of Wellington street and Miss Marion F. Stickney of Washington street were among the Barre people who went to Middlesex this morning to attend the convention of the Washington County Sunday School association, which opened this forenoon in the Methodist church. The Barre delegates will return to the city late this evening. The first consignments of rough stock to be transported from Millstone hill to Barre since the late days of February arrived in the city yesterday over the Barre railroad and were transferred at once to the Montpelier & Wells River railroad and the Central Vermont sid-ings. Yard crews on both of the latter roads have been restored and business in the two freight yards is beginning to assume its normal volume. It is said that quarrymen in Graniteville and Websterville are nearly all employed and that the prospects for a busy summer behind with their orders in consequence of the 10-week shutdown.

kinds. We now think that we have the best that can be had. Quite a change from other seasons.

Past seasons, Ginghams and Galateas have been the sellers. Now comes a better-finished, better-washing and a better-styled cloth. In 28-inch, it is called the Endurance Cloth; in 32inch the Devonshire Cloth; the 28inch at 121/2 c, the 32-inch at 18c. These prices are as low as Ginghams and lots better.

We have Endurance Cloth in over 30 patterns. We have Devonshire Cloth in over 35 patterns, an assortment as large as carried in any of the large Boston stores.

We are displaying on our tables some of the prettiest summer goods that you have ever seen. You do not have to even ask for them-they are where you can help yourself.
